Superb private fishing property: This spectacular 40-acre property sits at the end of the Upper Hoback River valley & borders millions of acres of public lands. A truly unique setting with spring fed ponds & the Hoback River running through the property. Natural resources include wild native cut throat trout, nesting ducks, sand hill cranes, blue herons, river otters, bald eagles, Canadian geese, osprey, coyotes, elk, deer, & moose. The home has 5 bedrms & 4.5 baths with an open floor-plan. Floor to ceiling windows look out over the ponds & old growth pine, fir, & spruce trees & onto the Wyoming Mtn Range. In addition to the 5771 SF main home, there is a bunkhouse, guest house, workshop & 40 x 60 ft. 4-bay equipment barn. Located approximately 1 hour to Jackson Hole & 1 hour to Pinedale.
