If you are looking for a home with privacy and character, this is it! Very well-maintained home on 13 beautiful acres located in a prime area of the Texas Hill Country. High ceilings with lots of windows highlight the surrounding countryside and let in tons of natural light. Downstairs, the warm kitchen opens to the dining room and provides outside access to the patio for enjoying your morning coffee in peaceful serenity. You'll find a 2-story family room with wet bar, lots of built-in cabinets and shelving as well as a gorgeous rock fireplace. There's also a flexible second living area with fireplace, outside access and connected to a study with pocket doors for privacy. The ½ bath is centrally located and the authentic Saltillo tile is beautiful! All the windows have been replaced, the HVACs, water heater, roof, exterior painting and garage door opener are all newly updated. Upstairs you'll find the master bedroom with an en-suite bath and balcony overlooking outstanding views! 2 other spacious bedrooms with full bath
